This stuffed animal is very important to my childhood and keeps me comforted. This is because when I'm asleep, its eyes are always open and stares at the door all night long to make sure that no bad guys come in. It also keeps me comforted because in the T.V show family guy, he can talk and that lets me know what he sounds like in my imagination.
Stewie is very smart so just incase something happens, he will always find a way to escape. As a result, he is one that will keep me comforted and helps me in a situation.
